Commonly Asked Questions:

What happens at the hearing?

At the time and date noted above, the Reeve will ask the applicant to speak about her/his application and then Council will ask questions. After that, anyone may speak to Council about the application. When the hearing is concluded, there are no further chances for anyone to speak to Council.

Do I have to attend the hearing?

Your attendance at the Public Hearing is welcomed, however, you are not required to attend. The applicant is required to attend the hearing to present their proposal and answer questions.

Why did I receive this notice?

To involve the public in the planning of our community, owners of property located within 100 metres of the above-mentioned property have received a copy of this notice. A notice is also posted in at least three public places to inform those residents who are not neighbouring property owners about the Public Hearing.

Where can I get more information?

If you would like more information on this application, please call the Brandon and Area Planning District at 729-2121.

What if I have objections?

Objections can be raised in person at the public hearing or by having written representation included in the application package as outlined below.

What if I have something to say but can not attend the hearing?

You may submit written comments to the Rural Municipality of Cornwallis Office at least one week before the date of the hearing. (Phone: 725-8686; Fax: 725-3659). Please be advised that all correspondence received in conjunction with, or as a result of, an application that requires council approval becomes public information, therefore personal information [such as names, addresses etc.] contained in the correspondence is released in the public domain.
